Vigilance Committees of Consumers at FPS Level

738. MISS SAROJ KHAPARDE: Will the Minister of CIVIL SUPPLIES, CONSUMER AFFAIRS AND PUBLIC DISTRIBUTION be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that Government have advised the State Government of Maharashtra to constitute Fair Price Shop (FPS) level Vigilance Committees of Consumers to prevent diversion of PDS commodities from the FPS levels;

(b) if so, the details thereof;

(c) the number of Vigilance Committees so far, constituted by the State Government in pursuance of the Government's advice with district-wise details thereof and how many of such committees are functional at present; and

(d) what other measures Government have taken to prevent diversion of PDS items from FPS levels throughout the country including Maharashtra?

THE MINISTER OF CIVIL SUPPLIES, CONSUMER AFFAIRS AND PUBLIC DISTRIBUTION (SHRI DEVENDRA PRASAD YADAV): (a) to (c): The Central Government has been advising the State Governments/UT Administrations including Maharashtra to constitute Fair Price Shops (FPS) level Vigilance Committees to involve people's participation in Public Distribution System. As part of their operational responsibilities, States/UTs are concerned with their constitution, composition, etc. and are responsible for their functioning. The Central Government debt not maintain the details of such committees at District levels. However, the Government of Maharashtra have reported that 13755 village level Vigilance Committees have been set up in the State in RPDS areas.

(d) The operational matters including enforcement measures to ensure that no mal-practices like diversion take place is the responsibility of the States/UTs. Powers have also been delegated to States/UTs to take action against persons indulging in mal-practices under the Essential Commodities Act, etc.
